CALIFORNIA.

Letter From Dr. Kendrick.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

DOWNEY CITY, CAL., June 10.—Having formed a brief and I hope not unpleasant acquaintance with your readers, perhaps I can answer in your columns many persons and questions more fully and satisfactorily than by private letters—in fact it is impossible for me to write all privately.

I reached home the 6th inst., well, and found all pretty well. The country is still booming. I gained 15 pounds on my six months' tour—just as much as I lost in the summer of 1886 in Texas, by the heat and hard work. Kentucky gave me the hard work, but the heat had not come, and a man who could not improve on Kentucky fare, hard work, a good conscience and the best society and general good cheer, may expect to be poor forever. California, however, feeds as well as any country when the cooks are "all right," but they are not always from Kentucky.

I find the church, my home matters, &c., doing pretty well, and the hearty "welcome home" by all hands is enough to make me feel that it is good to get home. Here we very naturally think of the heavenly home and there!

"What it must be to be there!"

California has had plenty of rain and crops are fine. Fruit trees are not quite so full as last year, then they were extra full. Health is good and the people active and earnest. Railroads, new houses, new pavements, &c., abound. In Los Angeles there is more building. I was told, than ever before. Still some parties overbought themselves and cannot pay readily, hence a partial, temporary lull in land sales. Buyers should come at once, however, for new comers are flooding the country and it is said that the land booms must soon boom again more than ever. Land may be said to be from $50 to $500 per acre. Almost everything grows well here and labor pays well. Few people are idle long unless they prefer to be idle; wages are good; rents are rather high, so are lumber, butter, eggs and fowls. Everything else about as in Kentucky, I think.

We have had no rain for some two months and expect none till October or November, and would not have it if we could. The sun gets warm, but the shade is always comfortable and we sleep all summer under two to four covers, and, with little exception, wear the same clothes all the year. I have met no one discouraged or fretting.

Our eighth annual co-operative camp meeting for Southern California will be about the first of September, under the big tent. "Come over and help us" and eat fruit and see flowers, &c. If we are not as clever as Kentuckians we will try to copy good examples. Our spring is later than common, fruit not ripening so early, but we will give you plenty and of the best. Come and see. I have said I could never be grateful enough for kindnesses received in Kentucky and I know I cannot repay them, but I would enjoy trying.

JUNE 13th.—I spoke to the young people last Lord's day and at night made my report to the church. On Monday I baptized two excellent ladies. Hastily and most affectionately,

C. KENDRICK.

The career of Grover Cleveland stamps him as a man of destiny and implants the mark as indelibly as was impressed upon Cromwell, or Napoleon, or Lincoln. Grover Cleveland is a name synonymous with strength. There is more genuine Americanism—courage without jingoism; ability without magnetism; worth without pretense; force without effervescence—in his little finger than in James G. Blaine's entire corposity. Grover Cleveland is an American, the highest type of manhood, combining truth without cant with honesty without Phariseism. He is a capable, direct, earnest, brave man, full of deep convictions which he has the manhood to avow and the courage to enforce. [Times.]

Red Canaries sell for $5 apiece in the bird stores in New York. They are said to be produced from the eggs of an ordinary canary that has been fed on cayenne pepper. The young birds are also kept on a red pepper diet until they are full grown and their plumage has become a settled and permanent red.

Farmers of the United States receive more clear money from chickens and eggs than from any other one source, and it is a fact that Garter's chicken cholera cure is daily adding to that revenue. Sold and warranted to cure by McRoberts & Stagg.

Syrup of Figs

Is Nature's own true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the system when Bilious or Costive; to dispel Headaches, Colds, and Fevers; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Piles, etc. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford.

Why will you cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief? Price 10c, 50c and $1.00. McRoberts & Stagg, Stanford, Ky., and Crow & Co., McKinney, Ky.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—We were remembered with a large package of fine cherries last Tuesday, for which our thanks are due Mrs. A. Rinehart.

—Mr. J. F. Holdam has sold his property on Somerset street to Mr. Scott Farris for $850. He and his wife moved thereto this week.

—Mr. Scott Farris won a good deal of money at the races and when he came home brought his wife a pair of $225 diamond earrings.

—Rev. J. N. Bowling, who has missed several meetings on account of sickness and death in his family was here last Saturday and Sunday at his regular appointment. His wife accompanied him.

—There is a good deal of sickness about here now. Mrs. Lizzie Bryant and Mrs. Ellen Saunders, Mrs. Dr. Pettus, Mrs. W. T. Stephenson and Hon. W. O. Hansford have all been sick. Mrs. Stephenson went to the country to visit Mrs. John Stephenson, her daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Hayden's, a friend. While at Mrs. Hayden's she was taken very sick and was in bed there several days before she was able to come home. She is now at home, but not well yet.

—Miss Irene Dillion is the guest of Miss Mary Wilmore, at Nicholasville. Mr. Robert L. Davis, of Barbourville, has been visiting the folks at home. Dr. Armendt has returned from a business trip to Owensboro. Mr. W. H. Hutchinson and children, of Fowler, Kansas, are visiting his father-in-law, Mr. Tom White, and other relatives here. Miss Maggie Buchanan has returned home from Staunton, Va., where she attended school and Misses Annie Singleton and Leah Steger from Georgetown Female College. Messrs. W. K. Buchanan and Joe Rhinehart went to Pineville last week. Mr. Buchanan returned Monday.

—A few days ago Misses Louana, Katie and Bertie James, with their guests, Mrs. Ellen Saunders, Miss Maggie Le Saunders and Sabra Hays, were out driving when their horse became frightened, ran some distance and then ran against a big tree in front of the Grove Spring, overturning the carriage and bruising them all considerably. Mrs. Saunders was the worst as she received an ugly gash in the forehead. We are glad to say that none of them were dangerously hurt. When the carriage turned over the frightened animal broke loose from it and it was well it did or they would all have been dragged to death.

—We went to the Picnic at Dripping Springs last Saturday and enjoyed the day very much. Mrs. Dr. Doores took us out and the ride in her comfortable carriage was enjoyed, too. Mr. Slaughter, true to his word, had fried chickens and all kinds of vegetables in abundance. The dinner was excellent, particularly the ices, and ample justice was shown it by the crowd present. After dinner the dancing began and was kept up until a late hour. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and if they did not in reality it was not the fault of the proprietor and his wife, for they spared no pains to make it pleasant for everybody. Hon. W. O. Hansford was expected to speak in the afternoon, but he was sick and could not go.

HUBBLE.

—The harvest is ripe and the music of the cycle is heard in the golden fields this week.

—The quarterly meeting at McKendree was largely attended yesterday. Uncle Jimmie Harris and wife, Mr. G. R. Engleman and family and Dr. Ben Walter and wife were among the many visitors. Dr. Fitch, presiding elder, preached to a full house Sunday night; subject, "Why I am a Methodist," text, 1st Thessalonians, 5th chapter and 21st verse, "Prove all things, hold fast that which is good." The Dr. evinced a good deal of thought in the preparation of his subject and delivered it in a non-prejudicial way to any other sect or order, but to the satisfaction of all who were present.

—One of the most attractive features happening in social circles took place at Mr. C. R. Harris' Saturday evening, which consisted of a large collection of the tit-bits and others in the celebration of the 11th birthday of Annie Bronaugh, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Engleman. Misses I. and Myra Owensley, Susie and Annie Bright, Susie, Bessie and Annie Wood, Josie and Fannie Engleman, Danville, Issie Walker, Lancaster, Hattie May Surber, of Missouri, Bettie Harris, Bessie Engleman and Mary Kay, Jo Johnson (master of ceremonies) Jake and Jo Robinson, Phelix and Jake White, G. B. Bright, Jr. and Bright Swinebroad and others whose names your reporter failed to get. The affair was unique and very enjoyable to all who were present. The little folks went away with gladdened hearts and will ever remember Mrs. Harris for the institution of such a pleasant occasion.

—Are you made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skint, Shiloh's Vindicator is a positive cure. McRoberts & Stagg, Stanford, Ky., and Crow & Co., McKinney, Ky.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—When last heard from Gabe Greenleaf was still solid for Blaine.

—The Boone Club will have its annual meeting as usual on the 4th of July.

—Democrats don't forget the meeting at the court-house Saturday at 4 p. m.

—Scott Buchanan was married at Richmond yesterday to Miss Johnston, of Lexington.

—Nelson Teater sold to George Brown, of Nicholasville, 8,000 pounds of hemp at 4.00 per cwt. C. W. Sweeney sold Tom Walker a fine horse for $142.50.

—J. Alex Doty has bought a half interest in the livery stable of Tom Walker. The firm will build at once on the lot recently purchased from J. W. Miller.

—Married on Wednesday, the 21st inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, in Upper Garrard, Mr. G. A. Perkins, of Jessamine, to Miss Mollie Davis.

—"Bully" Mason says that Chicago, just now, holds within her gates more wickedness than any city that exists or has existed since the creation of the world.

—This is the condition of Garrard county's crops in brief: Corn good, meadows short, oats no account, wheat half a crop, tobacco and hemp ditto. Rain needed badly.

—Dr. Elias Fisher, of Lancaster, sold a tract of land (2,000 acres) in Yazoo Valley, LeFlore county, Miss., for $11,000. There were 500 acres in cultivation, the rest not cleared.

—It strikes me that now would be a good time to commence boring that artesian well, which was so much talked of last fall. The water supply of Lancaster is already getting short.

—Judge M. H. Owsley is quite sick. E. D. Bishop and C. Price went to Richmond Wednesday to look after the latter's great trotter, J. P. Sandifer, now being trained at that place.

—Eld. G. W. Yancey left on Saturday for an evangelizing tour through the mountains of the State. He will be joined by his family as soon as the health of his wife will permit.

—At an examining trial Tuesday of the negroes, Emmett and Lon Maret, the former was held to the Circuit Court in the sum of $200 and the latter $100. It is thought the bond will be given.

—Miss Lee Cribbs, of Little Rock, Ark., accompanied by Miss Maggie Miller, left for that place on Monday. Miss Maggie will spend the summer with Miss Cribbs at her home in Little Rock. H. C. Hamilton is visiting his mother in Nicholasville.

—Prof. J. W. Taylor, of the faculty of Garrard College, was in Lancaster Wednesday. He goes hence to Kansas and Texas in the interest of the school. Jno. M. Farra has returned from the Commercial College at Louisville. Mr. Geo. R. Bradley is visiting in Shelbyville.

—Prof. J. B. Skinner, of Columbia, Mo., who is to take charge of Garrard College next year, is in the city. The faculty, which consists of 12 teachers, is a most able one and there is no doubt but that we are to have an able school.

—It is to be hoped that our Kentucky delegates at Chicago will make up their differences and allow harmony to prevail. They should endeavor to follow the example of the Kentuckians at St. Louis. We had a regular love feast there and not a jar disturbed the serenity of the untitled.

—Sheriff Robinson and Henry Burdett arrested Friday two negroes named Emmett and Lou Maret, who are charged with hog stealing. At the examining trial here Saturday Emmett was admitted to bail in the sum of $100 until Tuesday next and Lon consigned to the tender mercies of Jailor Rothwell.

—Judge W. E. Walker bought of Jno. M. Duncan 107 acres of land lying on the Richmond pike about half a mile from town for $52.50 per acre. James A. Royston has traded 125 acres of Paint Lick land to J. W. West for the latter's store and lumber and coal yard in Lancaster. The land is valued in the transaction at $35 per acre.

No sagacious republican will make the mistake of underestimating the strength of the democratic ticket, or the advantages of the democratic position. No such republican will deceive himself with the idea that the presidential battle is to be an easy contest, or that Mr. Cleveland and his party, entrenched in power are to be dislodged without a tremendous struggle. MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—The oats crop is suffering for rain.

—Cash Hiatt has taken a position in the Signal office.

—The "407" passed down the road on Wednesday, scattering filthy lure.

—A girl at T. J. Coffey's since Monday, Mr. C. has been married four times.

—J. W. Grider, of Skaggs creek, had a severe attack of convulsions Sunday evening.

—George Fredricks, who was charged with having furnished whisky to boys, compromised the case.

—Tilman Gilpin, section foreman at Brummetts, has been transferred to Pine Hill, Mr. Green going to Woodbine.

—That enterprising village, Brodhead, is making an effort to organize a stock company to erect a roller flouring mill.

—Andy Mason lost a valuable horse by staking him out to graze. The horse got tangled in the rope and choked to death.

—McKinzie & Baker have opened a grocery store in the Fish property. Pat Welsh has bought the grocery store of Walk Newcomb, near the depot.

—At Berea Wednesday a little girl of William Coffey, of Conway, this county, was run over by two unmanageable horses hitched to a spring wagon and had her leg broken and sustained other injuries.

—At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning as the L. & N. pay train was passing Pineville, coming north, Mrs. Sallie Doon attempted to cross the track ahead of the engine. She was struck and hurled some distance and died in a few minutes.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Mrs. Lyles, of Nashville, (Ann Cook,) is here on a visit. Miss Dollie Williams is home again from Hamilton College. J. D. Carpenter is still lingering.

—The roller mill in this place is nearly ready for operation. Mr. Vanarsdale has engaged the indefatigable J. B. Green as agent for the purchase of wheat in this region. See "ad." in another column.

—Hustonville No. 10 is probably the banner school district. Its three trustees are active, zealous, public-spirited young men and represent in the aggregate 29 lawful children of pupil age.

A Kentucky girl is credited with contributing the following to leap year literature: "How loose round my waste were the clothes of my childhood as my doubled up corsets remind me with pain: the slips that I wore when I used to chop stove wood had more enjoyment than bustle and train; the bustle, I know, is a thing highly treasured by ladies built on the mocking bird style, but give me the garment with looseness unmeasured, the old Mother Hubbard, which weak men revile; the dear Mother Hubbard, the loose Mother Hubbard, the honored old Hubbard which beats any style."

Thurman's bandana is always made of surah silk, originally from France, but now of Scottish importation. The trade in these goods has been almost dead of late years, say the merchants, but the nomination of Thurman has already built the bandana market and the dealers in gents' furnishing goods have put in heavy orders for this class of goods.

"I am so glad to meet you, Mr. Graybeard; my friend tells me you are the oldest Mason in America." "Oh, dear, no. That is my son, George Washington Graybeard, my youngest son. I am the boy preacher."

Editor Charles A. Dana receives a royalty of 12 1/2 per cent. on each volume sold of the American Encyclopedia, and thus far he has realized over $100,000 from this source.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of the Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and now on my third bottle and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middleward, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in the best of health." Sample bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Mountain in Terrible Labor.

The Republican Convention was called to order by Chairman Jones, of the National Committee at 12:31 Tuesday and the body proceeded to listen to an invocation to the Deity, which had been shorn of objectionable matter by the Moguls, who had passed upon it. Jones made a speech and afterwards J. S. Thurston, of Nebraska, was introduced as temporary Chairman. He also delivered himself of a lot of rot about the grand achievements of the g. o. p. and the efforts of the democratic party to send the country to the demitition bows. The usual committees were appointed and the convention adjourned till noon Wednesday.

One of the features of the day was the presence of John C. Fremont, the first presidential nominee of the republican party, 32 years ago. He was looking hale and hearty and made a lively speech, although about 80 years of age. During the short session Mahone and Wise, of Virginia, made a spectacle of themselves. They represent rival delegations and proceeded to air their dirty linen till cut off by adjournment. Mahone pronounced an assertion of Wise "as false as you are foul," when Wise, who was born and bred a fighter, replied, "I shall put the proper stamp on that at the proper time." Both are renegades, up for the stuff, but a victory for Wise, over the little repudiator, would be generally hailed with delight.

On assembling Wednesday the committee on credentials and resolutions not being ready to report, that on permanent organization was presented. It named M. M. Estee, of California, for chairman and any number of vice presidents and secretaries and was adopted. Mr. Estee was escorted to the chair and contented himself and satisfied the body by delivering a very short address. A number of gavel were presented, of silver, of gold and of oak, the latter made from the tree under which the g. o. p. was incubated in 1854. They were all accepted with the understanding that the light should be pounded out of the democratic party with them. The order of business made the naming of candidates the 4th on the list and balloting 5th. A recess was then taken till 8 p. m. The Mahone and Wise factions had a regular knock-down before the committee, which finally decided to seat 14 of Wise's and 10 of Mahone's men.

The Associated Press makes these figures: Sherman 250, Gresham 100, Depew 100, Alger 80, Harrison 120, Allison 50, Phelps 18, Rusk 22, Ingalls 14, Fittler 15, Stanford 16. Depew goes in with New York's solid vote of 72 and his friends claim that he can carry the Empire State by 50,000.

At the evening session the credentials committee was still not ready to report. Foraker, the little Buck-Fuss, Bradley the short-legged bantam, and others were called on to make speeches, and waved the bloody garment and raved at names. Afterwards the committee brought in a majority and a minority report, which was discussed vigorously till midnight, when a vote was taken and the majority report seating the Wise delegates was adopted and the committee adjourned till 10 yesterday.

Platform Adopted and Three Candidates Nominated.

Special Dispatch to the Interior Journal.

LOUISVILLE, June 21st, 5 p. m.—Committee met at 10 o'clock. Committee on resolutions reported usual platform, which was unanimously adopted.

It denounces everything democratic, the present administration in particular; promises the people deliverance, etc.; straight out for protection all along the line; favors coinage silver and gold. Advocates rights of people in possession of public lands; denounces treatment by Congress and administration of fisheries question; favors reduction of postage to one cent and declares republicanism alone is salvation for the country from utter ruin.

The names of Hawley, Gresham and Harrison were placed before the convention and adjournment had to 3 o'clock.

W. P. E.

The programme was to go right along nominating candidates and as 16 are to be placed before the convention, it is hardly probable that a ballot was reached last night; at any rate not more than one. What the outcome will be no man at present can guess.

A full report by the Press Association of the first two days' work will be found on our 4th page.

GEN. WOLFORD is prosecuting his canvass in the 11th with a vim and vigor that shows his determination to get there. He says he can knock the socks off Finley and here's hoping that he or some democrat will clean him out teeth and toe nail.

We are still pinning our faith to Sherman in case Blaine is not the nominee.

THREE days of the Chicago monkey how have gone and nothing done so far.

THERE WAS a wow and a wumpus in the Kentucky delegation over who should have the honor of being its chairman. Both Augustus Wilson and George Denny claimed election, but the former was declared chosen. Another vote was demanded, preliminary to which Wilson, Denny and Lewis indulged in some very unparliamentary remarks. They got hotter and hotter until finally Denny arose in high dudgeon and surmounting his noble, but corrugated brow with his hat he left the room and the vote being taken Wilson received 21 to Denny's nothing, his friends refusing to vote. Bradley, as usual, dodged the issue and failed to express himself for either, which produced a little frigidity between Denny and the vice-presidential aspirant. If big dogs fall out and fight over such a small bone, what will they do if by any possibility they should get a chance at the leaves and fishes. The other honors were distributed thus: Secretary, Charles M. Pendleton; Organization, John Bennett; Credentials, George W. Jolly; Resolutions, Logan McKee; Member National Committee, Col. C. Goodloe.

It has generally been understood that Morgan and his men got out of the Ohio penitentiary by tunneling, but the red republican papers now charge that old man Thurman slipped him out. The Old Roman is a very bad man and we expect to see it proved on him before the campaign is ended that he not only assassinated Lincoln and shot Garfield, but is a bloody anarchist besides.

The Democratic State Central Committee has decided to call a mass meeting of the young democracy in Louisville on the 28th to ratify the nominations for president and vice-president, and to select delegates to the convention which is to meet in Baltimore July 4th to organize a National League of Democratic Clubs. The Lincoln County Club will be represented and all others in the State should be.

CHAIRMAN THURSTON, following the lead of our own McKenzie, who spoke of Mrs. Cleveland as the "Uncrowned Queen of American Womanhood," referred to Blaine as "Our Uncrowned King," but it fell flat. It was about as disgusting as the most of his remarks were flagrantly false.

A BRADLEY procession, 250 strong, with several brass bands, promenaded the streets of Chicago and got up some enthusiasm for the short legged rooster from Garrard. They do say that he will get 125 votes on the first ballot and here's hoping that the number will increase till he gets there.

The opening prayer at the Chicago convention sounded so much like a political stump speech that the irreverent fellows who didn't know it from one applauded with great vehemence. The national committee evidently did its work well.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—It is said that Dick Tate is in Australia.

—Sheridan is getting well. He is not the first man to read his own obituary.

Dugan bought 50 head of 1,300-pound cattle at 4 cents; Wakefield, Moreland, & Co., bought of Thomas McRoberts 45 good beef cattle at 5 cents; Wakefield & Lee sold a car-load of horses to Blackford, of S. C. at $100 to $200 and bought a lot of 700-pound cattle at $2.00; 45 strictly good 2-year-olds of C. Jenkins, Garrard, at $3.60. Same firm sold to Bryne and Jeffries, of Louisville, 14 head of Polled Angus beef cattle, to be delivered in July, at $5.50 per cwt. This is said to be the best car-load of beef cattle in the State. C. P. Cecil sold to I. Braun, of Cincinnati, 64 head of beef cattle, supposed to weigh over 1,600 pounds and to be delivered July 10th to 20th, at $5.25 per cwt.

DRIPPING SPRINGS.

—Perhaps these Springs will boom this season as they never have before. Already are guests arriving, each mail bringing numbers of applications for rooms for parties who are to arrive in the near future. One town alone promises a party of ten on the 3d and the same town another party of 20-odd after the 4th. Dr. Chinn and wife, aged 92 and 101, have engaged rooms for the 10th. There have been more calls for rooms from strangers at a distance this season than ever before, and this with our regular patronage will fill us to overflowing very early in the season.

—Mr. Wyatt Hughes and grandson enjoy the distinction of being our first regular boarders this season, arriving one day before our opening. Among our guests now is a gentleman who has been a visitor to these Springs for 46 years—Mr. S. W. Givens. Another, Mr. Chas. Bishop, nephew of Ex-Gov. Bishop, of Ohio, who came here in very poor health, and without any appetite, is now as jolly as a school boy and takes his meals regular and can hold a very fair hand with your humble servant. Last evening he felt so good that he had to go over to the ball-room and take a set all alone by himself. As you know, Mr. Mr. Givens don't dance and I dare not. Speaking of dancing reminds me of another circumstance: I know a man who not only thinks it very wrong to dance, but also for the young folks to meet together in social enjoyment.

—A short time before I left Paint Lick I invited my Sunday School scholars to a social gathering (no dance) at my home. The evening was cloudy and this man told some of the young ladies he hoped it would rain so none of them could go and would not let his daughter go. Now a few days later at children's day, this man being a Sunday School superintendent, announced that the closing piece would be an essay on "Immortality" by his daughter. Now I would like to know which would be the worst, to attend a social gathering or to try to foist upon an intelligent audience an essay as original, which was copied verbatim from the Bible Companion, page 701. I think it a great deal worse to teach humbuggery, hypocrisy and deceit in a Sunday-school than to teach that you do not believe that God murders, kills and destroys, for this reason I was charged by this man as teaching heresy. I will not publish his name now, but I think about the time of the August meeting I will publish a letter of his and a circular which will make mighty interesting reading to people in certain localities.

—On the 4th of July we will have a grand time and a great big dance and as I told them in a public speech at the church that I would never dance again unless I felt like it and wanted to, I expect to keep my promise. If I feel like it I will lead the dance on the 4th, if not I won't so there's an end of it. Respt.

D. G. SLAUGHTER.
P. S. Bible quotations: "Woe unto you hypocrites, ye blind guides which strain at a gnat and swallow a camel, which appear beautiful outward, but within are filled with hypocrisy and iniquity." The Bible denounces hypocrisy as one of the greatest sins. D. G. S.

—Benj. T. O. Hubbard, sent to Joliet prison for robbing the First National Bank of Monmouth, Ill., of $115,000 and causing the wreck of that institution in 1885, is dead with no one to mourn his loss.

—A monument to mark the spot where brave Jeb Stuart, the cavalry general, fell, and another over the grave of 76 confederates at Emmanuel church, both near Richmond, Va., were dedicated this week.

There is but one way in which the liquor question can be settled and that is by a license system. Those who think that the passage of a prohibition law will avoid the evils which arise from the excessive or the immoderate use of liquors, are badly mistaken. While corn grows liquor will be made and used. No legislation which human wisdom can devise, can stop it; and this has been demonstrated too often to need any citation of statistics. NOTICE!

TO THE CITIZENS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

Having recently equipped a fine Roller Mill in the town of Stanford, Ky., we are ready to furnish you with flour of the highest quality. We think the citizens of the county should have county pride enough to patronize and sustain the same. We wish to inform you that we are now in the city of Lincoln, Ky., and can now make meal to suit any person. It cannot be equalled by any other mill in this vicinity. We solicit a trial in our corn meal department. All having grain in our line for sale will please call at the Mill, where our agent will be found at all times, who will give the best prices for same. Bran and shipstuffs always in stock. W. N. POTTS, Supt., Stanford Roller Mill Co.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION.

The undersigned, Harvey Floyd, E. S. Gooch, Major T. Reynolds, L. G. Gooch, W. H. Miller, E. B. Caldwell, J. C. Sine, J. S. Young, have associated themselves together to become incorporated as a stock company under the corporate name of the Highland & Wayneburg Turnpike Road Co. of the Highland & Wayneburg Turnpike Road Co. The business to be conducted in the building, maintaining and conducting of a MacAdamized turnpike road from the present terminus of the Stanford and Hall's Gap turnpike in Lincoln county through Highland and Wayneburg precincts to the Pulaski county line, or a part of such named turnpike.

The principal place of business shall be Highland, Lincoln county, Ky.

The corporation shall commence on the 15th day of June, 1888, and terminate on the 15th day of June 1895.

The authorized capital stock is to be twenty thousand dollars, which shall be paid at such times and in such amounts and upon such terms as the Board of Directors shall prescribe.

The affairs of the corporation are to be managed by a board of five Directors, one of whom shall be selected as president by the board; and such directors shall be elected on the first Saturday in June of each year and shall serve for one year next ensuing their election. Said board shall also elect a clerk and treasurer.

The private property of the stockholders shall be exempt from the corporate debts.

The undersigned, Harvey Floyd, E. S. Gooch, Major T. Reynolds, L. G. Gooch, W. H. Miller, E. B. Caldwell, Jr., J. S. Young, Stanford, June 1, 1888.

THE FLORENCE WASHING MACHINE

I have bought the right to sell the Florence Washing Machine and am now prepared to furnish all who wish to save their clothes from the rubbing and tearing incident to the old process of washing. Take one and try it and be convinced. I'll not worry you about buying unless you are fully satisfied as to its merits.

The undersigned have purchased the Florence Washing machine and after a thorough trial, we take pleasure in adding our testimony to its worth, and without hesitation pronounce it a success in every particular, doing all that is claimed for it. Wm. Duggerly, J. W. Wallace, Dr. Burne, Dudderar, J. E. Lynn, L. L. Dawson, C. Vandy, Mrs. Amanda Peak, George Peyton, Alex. Holchaw, C. C. Fields, Albert Gumbert, Sin Raines, R. E. Barrow, A. M. SOMEWHAT PERSONAL.

Mr. T. D. Raney has been sick for a week.
Mrs. A. A. McKinney and Arch are visiting at Crab Orchard.
Mr. Will Moore, of London, has been visiting his cousin, M. D. Elmore.
Mrs. J. W. Gentry, of Sedalia, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. W. Miller.
Mr. J. C. Hays has had another attack of his old enemy, but he is much better now.
Miss Lucretia Severance, of Lebanon, is visiting the family of Mrs. Joe Severance.
Miss Louise Bailey left Wednesday to spend the summer in Missouri with relatives.
Dr. Peyton was prostrated by heat Wednesday and was unable to attend his niece's wedding.
Judge S. M. Boone, of Somerset, was before the examiners Wednesday with a view to getting a pension.
W. S. Vanarsdale, of Harrodsburg, attended the Presbytery and was the guest of Mr. H. C. Ruple.
Mrs. B. F. Dawson came down from Lilly on a visit yesterday. Her husband has a good position there now.
Misses Emma and Helen Saffley and Miss Gertrude Grady are spending the week with friends in Danville.
Mrs. George D. Wearen, with Bartie and Janie, went to Somerset Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Hall.
Mrs. Rebecca Jones, of St. Louis, who has been visiting at Mr. John M. Reid's, left yesterday for her daughter's in Mercer.
Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Firth, Mrs. Monie Dunn and Mrs. Belle Henderson were all at Mr. G. T. McRoberts' this week.
J. S. Owsley, Jr., and sisters, Misses Mattie and Maggie, attended the commencement exercises at Danville this week.
Miss Pattie Trumble, daughter of Mr. A. Trumble, will entertain her friends next Tuesday evening at her home in Junction City.
E. F. Newcome, agent for Sweet Home soap, is here to give you $14 worth of that article for 56 and throw in some jewelry besides, he says.
Mr. J. L. Dawson, Sr., who is very ill, was a little better yesterday. The old gentleman is 82 years of age and has been growing feebler for a long time.
Dr. W. B. Penny and wife left Tuesday night for Owensboro, where the doctor will practice his profession. Many friends here wish them good luck and plenty of it.

Mrs. Jennie Arment was down from Crab Orchard Wednesday to meet her husband, Dr. W. B. Arment, who had been on a visit to Owensboro. They will spend the summer at Crab Orchard.
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Manier, of Nashville, with their little ones, are on a visit to Hon. and Mrs. John Sam Owsley. Their presence completes the home circle and the reunion is a happy one, especially to the latter.

LOCAL LORE.

NECKWEAR AT D. KLAS'S.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—My house and lot. For further particulars call on Mrs. Fannie Dunn.

A BRAND NEW stock of the finest Candies just received at A. A. Warren's "Model Grocery."

DEATH.—George Spoonamore, aged 21 years, died Wednesday of typhoid fever. He was a son of Elijah Spoonamore and was known as an exceptionally good boy.

AND NOW comes Mr. Bluford McMullen to say that the report that he insulted Mrs. Reynolds, caught her horse's bridle or cursed her is false as well as the charge that he got whisky from Baker's.

As important turnpike letting is advertised in this issue.

Go to George Portman's for lemonade, ginger ale and grape soda.

We want to sell 100,000 sawed shingles. Bruce & McRoberts.

W. H. Traylor has closed his distillery after making 351 barrels of whisky.

New hats and bonnets for summer wear just received at Mrs. Kate Dudderar's.

LOST.—A pair of gold eye-glasses. Liberal reward to finder. Leave at the Post Office.

THE town of Rowland was being laid off under the incorporating act by Surveyor John Bright, yesterday.

A CITIZEN calls attention to the dog nuisance and suggests a remedy. Will the council do something in the premises?

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL will play the Rowland Base Ball Club this evening at the grounds of the former. Game called at 3 o'clock.

SECOND-HAND Walter A. Wood rake for sale at your own price. One McCormack mower as good as new for $20. Metcalf & Foster.

A NUMBER of wells in town have already gone dry and the cisterns are lower than usual. Grass around town looks like it would after a drouth in September.

THE public school at Rowland has been given to Miss Bettie W. Tompkins, of Harrodsburg, who is also to employ an assistant. The school will be opened the first Monday in August.

I HAVE put on a comfortable spring-wagon to run between here and Danville. Will leave here at 9 o'clock each morning, returning at 4 in the afternoon. Fare one way 75 cents, or round-trip $1.25. A. T. Nunneley.

THE Council adopted our suggestion to require Marshal G. S. Carpenter to wear uniform and he has donned a suit of blue, the first he ever wore, and looks every inch an officer. Carp used to wear the gray with credit and we are sure he will not do discredit to the blue.

PLEASANT POINT.—Mr. W. D. Dye writes that the Union Sunday-School is doing finely and that it will give a picnic July 4th, to which everybody is invited. It doesn't take prohibition to make it "dry" now. Land buyers are thick. Sam Reid talks Texas, but stays in the best place of all.

TO MY CUSTOMERS.—The first of July, the semi-annual settling time, is now at hand and I ask those of my customers indebted to me to come forward and settle their accounts promptly on that day. A number of accounts are due on that date and it is very necessary that I have what is due me by July the 3d at the outside. H. C. Ruple.

SEVERAL parties are now at Hales Well and the proprietor, A. L. Spoonamore, tells us that many have signified their intention of spending some of the heated term with him. There is no finer medical water in this section and the fare and accommodations are excellent for the low price. It is a wonder that the place is not always crowded.

ARM BROKE.—Mr. W. G. Raney slipped from the verandah of the house he is building for Dr. Reid, Wednesday and fell on his left arm, breaking the large bone at the wrist, which was also dislocated and sprained. Drs. Reid and Peyton fixed him up all right, but it will be many a day before he can use it. The accident is especially unfortunate at this busy season, when of all others carpenters must get in their work, and he had arranged for all he could do before the bad weather set in.

THE Lincoln County Democratic Club began business Tuesday night by selecting Col. W. G. Welch, Chairman, who explained the object of the formation of the club and what was expected of it. E. C. Walton was chosen secretary and the list of names of members read. There are 60 old of them and more than half were present. Nominations for president of the club being called for R. C. Warren, G. B. Cooper and J. W. Alcorn were put in nomination, but the two former were withdrawn by request as their duties would prevent them from serving as they should, and Mr. Alcorn was unanimously chosen. He accepted the honor with the understanding that a further meeting of the club should hold another election if it saw proper, and then made a very happy speech for organization, Cleveland, Thurman and tariff reform. A committee consisting of W. G. Welch, G. B. Cooper and E. C. Walton, was on motion appointed to select a couple of delegates to the State meeting of democratic clubs at Louisville on the 28th and John H. Miller, chairman, George McAllister, J. E. Portman, D. R. Carpenter and T. D. Newland a committee to secure additional members and arrange for the purchase of the uniform, which will consist merely of a white plug hat and a bandana. An adjournment was then had till the night of the 30th, at which time the delegates to the State meeting will report and additional officers be elected. There will be a number of rousing speeches then and we hope to see the court-house crowded.

Lost on the Somerset pike a black, moire silk sash. Please leave at this office and receive liberal reward.

THE highest the mercury got was 90° in the shade. We did not give it a chance in our office as it might have run out of the spout. A salamander could hardly live in this worse than hades.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—James Haley and Miss Arbell Adams, both of the Crab Orchard neighborhood, obtained license to marry to-day at the bride's father's, Mr. Ham Adams.

—Miss Ollie Gregory, a cousin of Senator John D. Harris, eloped with R. M. Shaw, depot agent at Harris' Station, Madison county, and was married in Covington.

—Mr. Elliott Fishback, depot agent at Moreland, and a very clever gentleman, was united in marriage to Miss Annie A. King, the pretty daughter of B. B. King, on the 20th.

—Daniel Richert, a widower, and Mrs. Mary Schneider, who enters the matrimonial estate for the third time, were united yesterday. This seems to be a case of love at first sight, as we learn that the contracting parties had only seen each other a few times.

—Rev. John Bell Gibson united in marriage Wednesday Mr. A. Kennedy Elkin and Miss Eliza Catherine, daughter of James Anderson, of the Goshen neighborhood. The couple and their friends then drove to Col. Elkin's, the groom's father, where Mrs. Elkin spread a nice supper, which was much enjoyed, as was also the several hours of social pleasures.

—When Mrs. W. M. Bright (Lula McKinney) graduated at Daughters College in a class of 14, they agreed each to send a spoon as a present when any of their number got married. One of the class has died and Mrs. Bright is the fifth to marry. The agreement has been strictly carried out and Mrs. B. has a sufficient number of spoons to start house-keeping with. She tells us that the one who received 13 spoons lost her husband in a short time, again confirming the belief of superstitious persons that it is an unlucky number.

—The love affair which has existed a number of years between Mr. James T. Craig and Miss Mary Brown was consummated Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. P. A. Brown, in the presence of a few special friends and relatives, Rev. W. L. Williams performing the ceremony. There were no attendants and at the request of the contracting parties the ceremony was a very short one. The bride, who is the daughter of the late Judge Ellis Brown, and who is one of the most lovely and lovable of ladies, was attired in an India silk overdress, green silk skirt and pink trimmings, and a more superb picture of woman's loveliness was never displayed than she presented in the arm of the man of her choice, taking the vow that would forever bind their destinies. Possessed of rare accomplishments and an evenness of temperament, with a wonderful faculty of making friends, Miss Mary is the peer of any lady, and her popularity was evinced to some extent by the number of handsome presents she received. Mr. Craig is a member of the firm of Owsley & Craig, and besides being a most excellent business man, has the pleasure of possessing a legion of friends. Starting out under such flattering auspices, we see nothing in their future but happiness, and if good wishes of true friends avail anything, their life will ever be as it was the day they were pronounced husband and wife. After the ceremony an elegant repast was enjoyed and not until 11 o'clock did the guests retire, so reluctant were they to leave the happy scene. THE INTERIOR JOURNAL's best wishes will always attend them. Mr. and Mrs. Craig will have rooms at Mrs. Lottie Holmes' and take their meals at Mrs. W. F. McKinney's.

Kill the Dogs or Tax Them.

To the Editor Interior Journal.
I desire to call public attention to what has grown to be an intolerable nuisance in Stanford—the dogs. Every alley in town is overrun by them. They sleep under the floors of stables and other out-buildings all day to crawl out at night a yelping, snarling, howling pack of as mongrel curs as ever infested a village of Digger Indians. One cannot close his bed-room windows this weather, so that you are forced to lie awake the whole night on a literal bed of torture, with every nerve quivering under this infernal concert, and all that your neighbor's cur may announce his presence and continued well-being to 500 other kennels. Tax-payers as a rule are not dog-fanciers. There are many people, delicate ladies, the sick, other persons who are possessed of nerves and therefore of brains, who cannot sleep with a dog barking fiercely in their ears. Is it not just a little hard that these people—surely a majority in every civilized community—should be robbed nightly of their rest and placed at the mercy of these worthless pests? It might be borne with some degree of patience if these dogs were of any earthly use to any human being. But dogs in town are as much misplaced as sidewalk out in the fields. Their only office is to breed fleas, suck eggs, make predatory excursions into country sheep-folds and drive rest and sleep from the town limits.
I am sure I speak for three-fourths of our citizens when I enquire respectfully if there is no remedy for this? Might it not at least mitigate the nuisance if a heavy tax were imposed at once upon each dog in town, every tax-paid dog to wear a collar to be furnished by the town and all others to be killed? I make this suggestion to the Council for what it is worth. A CITIZEN OF STANFORD.

THE REPUBLICANS

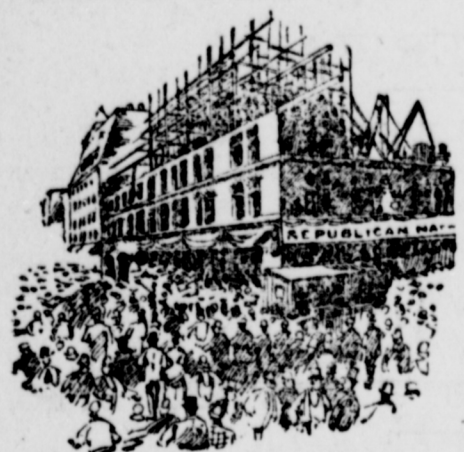

PROGRESS OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION AT CHICAGO.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FIRST AND SECOND DAYS.

Still Nothing Definite as to Who Will be the Nominees—Brief Speech Permanent Chairman Estee—The Committee on Permanent Organization—Series and Incidents About the Windy City.

FIRST DAY'S SESSION.

CHICAGO, June 19.—A strong breeze, that made the big stripes of bunting in which the exterior of the auditorium was enveloped, flap like the sails of a West India merchantman in an October gale swept over Lake Michigan landwards, this morning. Very grateful it proved to the thousands of perishing patriots, that from an early hour gathered in front of the great building and gazed longingly upon the doors, through whose portals they had no open sesame. Inside the building all was bustle and confusion.

EXTERIOR OF UNFINISHED AUDITORIUM.

The delegates themselves were slow in assembling, and the same might be said of the visiting. Between the police and the plethora of assistants, sergeants-at-arms and other subordinate functionaries as much red tape was brought into use as if the fortunate holders of tickets were about to enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Once within the building, however, indignation was quickly changed into exclamations of delight. It was like a transformation from a barren plain into fairyland.

CHAIRMAN JONES OPENING THE CONVENTION.

With its myriads of electric lights in arches, in stars and diamonds, in spheres, in almost every conceivable design of art with its oases, banners, bunting streamers of a thousand hues, the immense interior was a symphony of color a magnificent spectacle of the art decorative.

The chairman's platform was simply a floral bower. Nothing could be seen of the front of the desk upon which eight years ago descended the gavel that announced the nomination of James A. Garfield, and four years later the success of James G. Blaine. It was one huge bank of roses.

Directly beneath the chair were pictures of Gen. Logan and Grant wreathed in immortelles, while from the first balcony, portraits of all the Republican presidents from Washington to Arthur looked down upon the delegates.

At 12:35 that grizzled veteran and first candidate of the Republican party for president, Gen. John C. Fremont, was escorted to the platform by a sergeant-at-arms, and when he caught the eye of the floor and galleries he was honored with the first burst of applause that had been given so far during the morning.

Half-past twelve and the band galvanized into life by the frantic efforts which some of the assistant secretaries had for some time been making to attract its attention struck up a tune, but a sign from Chairman Jones at 12:33 brought it to a full stop and the convention was called to order.

Then Rev. Frank W. Gunsulius was introduced to lead the convention in prayer. He thanked the Lord for the intelligence and courage under which the banners of the Republican party had gone forth to conquests and prayed that the convention might be dominated by good purposes for the glory of God and the good of the people. Blessings were asked for the leaders of the party and for those occupying high places in the administration.

Then the call for the convention was read in a ringing tone by Secretary Fessenden and the references to the tariff, to the protection of American labor, to the accumulation of surplus, the demand for a free, honest ballot and a fair count, and the question of the admission of the territories were all loudly cheered, especially that relating to the tariff.

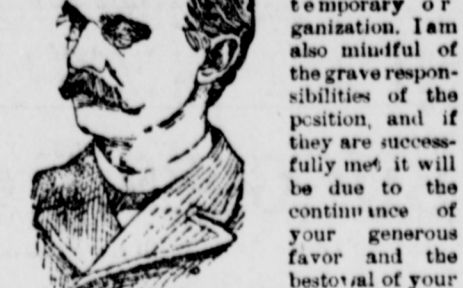

The reading concluded, Chairman Jones read an address. He spoke so low that from the start there were cries of "louder" even from those in the front benches. He prophesied success for the Republican party, and said that thanks to President Cleveland and his southern allies, they had thrown off their disguise and declared themselves as the advocates of free trade.

At this juncture the Hon. John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, who was Monday chosen by the National committee as temporary chairman, had moved up to the right of Mr. Jones and the latter lost no time in introducing his successor. A delegate from Kansas immediately arose and demanded a call of the roll, in order to nominate Hon. William Warner, of Missouri, but Mr. Thurston, without noticing the motion, began to deliver his address, thus establishing the precedent that the choice of a National committee for temporary officers need not have been ratified by the convention.

Mr. Thurston spoke as follows:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I am deeply sensible of the distinguished honor you have conferred upon me as the presiding officer of your temporary or organization. I am also mindful of the grave responsibilities of the position, and if they are successfully met it will be due to the continuance of your generous favor and the bestowal of your loyal assistance.

JOHN M. THURSTON. I have no words in which to fittingly express my heartfelt appreciation of your confidence. I thank you, gentlemen, not for myself alone, but for that grand and growing west which never disappoints the expectations of the Republican party.

"When our candidates are chosen, we will join with heart and soul in the grand chorus of rejoicing, and the rainbow of our harmony shall give certain promise of the glory of a victorious morning in November. When the Democratic party at the close of the last presidential election robbed us of a victory honestly and fairly won, we patiently waited for the certain coming of the justice of the years. We hoped and believed that 1888 would right the great National wrong of 1884. Right it not only for the Republic, but also for the grand and glorious candidates whose names were the inspiration of that wonderful campaign. The infinite wisdom of an all-wise Providence has otherwise decreed.

"The Republican party points with pride to the great achievements of its past and offers as an earnest of its future faithfulness an unbroken record of services performed for freedom, union and National prosperity. It is pre-eminently the party of protection.

"Its platform epitomized stand for the protection of popular government on the American continent. Stands for the protection of all governmental and international rights from restriction or invasion. Stands for the protection of the life, liberty and protection of all the immunities and privileges of American citizenship. Stands for the protection of the ballot box, from the crimes of intimidation, robbery and substitution. Stands for the protection of American commerce, American manufacture and American agriculture, from destructive foreign competition. Stands for the protection of home industry, home skill and home labor against the free trade theories which would pauperize and degrade them all. Stands for the protection of the people from the unjust and oppressive exaction and combination of aggregated capital and corporate power. Stands for the protection of both capital and corporation from confiscation and mob violence and above all, stands for the protection of the sanctity and happiness of the American home.

"The reconstructed Democracy has now been in power nearly four years. Its administration has been most satisfactory to those who hold office under it. Its justice to the disabled soldier has won golden opinions from those who gave them their wounds. Its financial management has been safe because of its inability to destroy the resulting prosperity of Republican legislation.

"When Robert Bruce, king of Germany, lay upon his dying bed he requested that his heart should be taken from his inanimate body borne by knights hands to the Saviour's sepulchre. After his death, James, earl of Douglas, undertook the sacred mission, and with the heart encased in a golden casket set out upon his pilgrimage to the Holy Land. On their way thither, himself and comrades were set upon by a great host of Moorish warriors. Though they fought with all the valor of mortal men they were borne backward by sheer force of numbers, and their overthrow seemed certain.

"When Douglas, drawing from his bosom the priceless casket, cast it far out into the midst of the oncoming host and cried out: Lead on, hearts of Bruce, we will follow thee, and the Knights of Scotland, never defeated while following Bruce, pushed forward and won the day. Let us convention find a Douglas for our Bruce. He will take the soul of our great leader into the golden casket of his love, and with it lead us on to certain and splendid victory.

Frequent applause greeted the opening sentences of the chairman's speech but it swelled into a torrent when he reached his references to Blaine, "the chevalier of American politics and the nightmare of the Democracy," caused the convention to applaud again and again. But even this was nothing compared with the demonstration with which both galleries and floor received the declaration that the party cannot and must not commit the political crime of disobedience to its will. This evoked cheers which were several times repeated and accompanied by waving of flags and other tokens of exuberance.

Silence restored the rest of the roll of temporary officers was read, leading out with C. W. Friable, of Michigan; Michael Richard, Wisconsin, and W. M. Rowell, Tennessee, as secretaries. This also failed to be submitted to the convention for ratification but no objection was made to this course.

"Mr. Chairman," said ex-Congressman Horr, but just at that moment the chairman pushed an electric button, the band struck up a melody of National airs and Mr. Horr stepped back into his seat with a deep sigh of disapproval. The convention kept time with its feet to "Yankee Doodle," "Marching Through Georgia," finally bursting out into song, applauded in a kind of reverent manner when the strains of "America" broke upon the air and grew vocal again when the National hymn gave way to "Star Spangled Banner."

When the music had ceased Mr. Horr was recognized. He wanted, he stated, to present to the convention a gavel made out of the wood from the oak under which the Republican party was organized July 6, 1854, in Jackson, Mich. In accepting the gavel Mr. Thurston said he would at once proceed to pound the daylight out of the Democratic party.

The following resolution of sympathy with Gen. Sheridan was adopted by a rising vote: "The delegates to the Republican National convention representing the surviving comrades of the distinguished soldier and general of the army, Phil H. Sheridan, and endorsing also the living principles for which he so gallantly fought and triumphed during the great era of the war, send him their sincere congratulations on the prospect of his recovery, and hope that his life may be preserved for many years."

The call of the various committees having been concluded unanimous consent was given to Chairman Green, of the Nebraska delegation, to present Gen. John C. Fremont to the convention. Mr. Green, with the voice of a tragedian, referred to the first Republican convention, those who participated in it who had passed away, and to the fact that the great leader selected by that convention had been spared to be with them to-day. He was admonished to be brief by the convention shouting loudly for Fremont.

When the veteran came to the front most of the delegates got on their feet and the applause was general. The Pathfinder spoke in a clear, strong tone. He thanked the convention for its reception. Pride and gratification were evident in his face.

MR. GREEN PRESENTING GEN. FREMONT.

Mr. Green, of Nebraska, presented Gen. Fremont, he said, filled his bosom and his joy that the party with which he had been so prominently identified in his early days had risen to the position it occupied to-day was unexpressed.

Fred Douglass was then called for and responded in a short speech, after which the crowd called for Ingerson, but if present he refused to show himself.

Then they called for Foraker, but the laugh was turned on those who expected a speech, as he simply moved that the roll of the committee be read for verification by the secretary. Then, with a smile that indicated his sense of pleasure at having outwitted the audience, he sat down and the secretary waded drearily through the list of peculiar names.

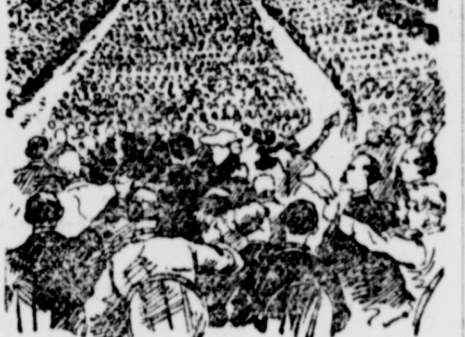

There was a warm and protracted discussion over the admission of delegates from Virginia, twenty out of their twenty-four seats being contested. Gen. Mahone, Congressman Wise and Butterworth, Senator Hoar and others took part in the discussion, and the whole matter was finally laid on the table.

At 3:31 the convention adjourned until 11 o'clock Wednesday.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

CHICAGO, June 20.—The weather and the political pot were in accord this morning. Both were boiling. The grateful breeze that wafted itself yesterday across the lake had struck a snag on the Michigan shore and its place was filled with a stifling blast that for aught it could have stayed away from the Sahara desert. Hot as it is, however, the political lions do not propose to allow their enthusiasm to be scorched.

From 6 o'clock this morning the interior of the principal hotels, to say nothing of the exteriors for blocks around, have been one solid and ever-moving mass of people. A thousand Rusk cohorts came down from Wisconsin before the managers of the governor's boom were out of bed. They took possession of the headquarters, the committee room and the adjacent corridors and proceeded to give themselves up to a general hurrah.

The Alger adherents received an addition this morning to the extent of several hundred persons, and there were reinforcements in the Sherman, Harrison and Allison camps. All of them were loud, long and hearty, and their appearance was more than welcome to the patriots that have been bearing the heat and burn of the past few days.

According to one impartial calculation 240,000 strangers are in the city, and fully 200,000 of these are here to play the parts of amateur politicians. They enact their roles by shouting for a favorite soon on an average every five minutes of the day.

It is a welcome relief to leave the torrid temperature on the outside to pass under the huge stone archway and thread the labyrinth of passages that lead into the auditorium hall. Here it is just cold enough for comfort. A constant flow of fresh air passing in its way from the basement over tons of ice, brings with it an invigorating influence. It is not quite a refrigerator, but it is as near to it as a structure of its kind can possibly be.

The women are among the earliest on the scene, and very soon the stage boxes are filled with them.

The floral decorations of yesterday are replaced by two simple bouquets of red and white carnations, which ornament the top of the speaker's desk, while the mass of foliage and the big bank of flowers that created so much admiration yesterday has given way to an eagle wreathed in smilax. A life size bust of Gen. Logan, with stars and stripes in the background, looks down from the edge of the reporter's platform right into the eyes of Chauncy Dewey.

At 11:30, only a small scattering of Ohio, Massachusetts, New York and Louisiana delegates were in their seats.

At 12 o'clock the temporary chairman was not present and the crowd cried for "music." Col. George R. Davis, who holds the floor in the chairman's inclosure, touches the electric button and the band in the balcony responds with a selection from the "Chimes of Normandy," presently varying it with a melody of patriotic airs.

Here at last twenty minutes late is Chairman Thurston. The gentleman with him, slim in stature, intellectual in countenance, clean shaved chin and closely cropped mustache is Steven Northrup, pastor of the First Baptist church of Fort Wayne, Ind., and well known as the president of the board of managers of the Baptist ministers National home at Benton, Mich.

Meanwhile the band which has been keeping the convention in good humor with, "Tramp, the Boys are Marching," "Rally 'Round the Flag," and similar exhilarating airs concludes its selection with "America." Mr. Thurston rises, surveys the throng through his gold-rimmed glasses, his gavel falls and at 12:33 the convention is called to order.

The clergyman is introduced and gives thanks to God for his mercies, for the divine protection, for all the rich blessings that come to-day from a glorious past, for all the things that pertain to the moral and spiritual welfare of the country, for the peace and prosperity of the land. When the prayer concluded the band in slow and solemn tones rendered a familiar hymn.

Having announced that a large number of resolutions had been sent to the desk before the recess, Mr. Thurston referred to the appropriate committees, the chairman asked: "What is the pleasure of the convention?"

Mr. Hamill, of Colorado, was quickly on his feet to move an adjournment until 6 o'clock, "unless," he added, "there is something we have to do."

There were shouts of "no" and the report of the committee on permanent organization was loudly called for.

A motion that the committee report be once moved and seconded, but Mr. Harris, of North Carolina, contended that the committee could hardly report before the committee on credentials had concluded its labors.

This was effective in securing the withdrawal of the motion, but the chairman interposed to say that at last two conventions they did not wait for the credentials before effecting a permanent organization. He also announced that the former committee could not report until 5 p. m.

Mr. Anderson, of Iowa, moved that the convention adjourn until 5 p. m. Congressman Bayne, of Pennsylvania, insisted that the convention proceed to the permanent organization. He had the convention with him, as was evinced from the applause, and seeing this he called for the report.

Mr. Anderson withdrew his motion and the motion to receive the report of the committee on permanent organization was unanimously adopted. When Governor Foster, of Ohio, stepped upon the platform to present the report, he was heartily cheered. He named the following officers:

Chairman—Hon. M. M. Estee, of California.

Secretaries—Charles W. Clisbee, of Michigan; Miles Griffin, of Wisconsin; William Burr, of Tennessee; Mr. Lynch, of Pennsylvania.

Assistant secretaries—Thomas J. Brogan, of Tennessee; James Bisby, of Minnesota; Henry M. Cooper, of Arkansas; William Nelson, of New Jersey; A. W. Monroe, of Maryland; J. E. Wiley, of Texas; C. M. Shinn, of West Virginia, and John E. Minor, of Louisiana.

Reading clerks—Harry Ballard, of Vermont; Col. Charles Lusk, of New York; Capt. David Lanning, of Ohio; James H. Stone, of Michigan, and George M. Brinkerhoff, of Illinois.

Official stenographer—Gustavus P. English.

Sergeant-at-arms—Charles Fitzsimons, of Chicago.

Mr. Estee's name was received with a burst of applause from the Californians. Benjamin Butterworth's name among the vice-presidents was received with great approbation and when the name of Webster Flanagan, of Texas, was reached the audience gave a great shout, then went into convulsions of laughter and finally concluded with a cheer.

No one had any opposition to offer to the report and when it had been adopted Governor Foster, of Ohio, George B. Sloane, of New York, and M. D. Foley, of Nevada, were appointed a committee to consult the permanent chairman to his seat.

A few words of thanks from Temporary Chairman Thurston for the consideration extended to him, a word of introduction to his successor, and the permanent chairman stepped forward. He spoke clearly and distinctly and with considerable earnestness of manner as follows:

"GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION—I thank you in the name of the states and territories of the Pacific coast as well as from my own heart, for the distinguished honor that you have seen fit to confer upon me.

"I appreciate to the fullest extent the grave responsibilities devolving upon me, and this being a Republican convention, I shall ask in all things its charitable judgment and its candid and earnest support.

"Gentlemen of the convention, following so illustrious a gentleman as your temporary chairman, I shall not attempt to detain you by any lengthened speech. I only want to say to you that we live so far from the center of the republic, over on the Pacific shore, that I can't even guess who your nominee is going to be. [Laughter.] Of course you all know. [Laughter.]

"I say further to you, my friends and gentlemen of the convention, that while I am not able to say exactly what your platform will be, yet the people of the country have elected it, and the rattle of the skirmish line was heard only two weeks ago from Oregon. [Great applause.] God willing, next November you will hear from Cleveland's Appomattox all over this great republic. [Applause.]

"My friends and gentlemen of the convention, again thanking you for the very high honor you have conferred upon me, and impressing you, I hope and pray, with the belief that our duties are of the greatest and most solemn character, and trusting from the depths of my soul that every act may be done to promote the best interest of our common country and to advance the great Republican party, I will call for the next order of business. [Applause.]

The first applause was brought on by Mr. Estee's reference to Oregon, and it was mingled with shouts of triumph. Three cheers for Oregon were called from the gallery, and heartily given. Only two minutes were occupied with the speech, to the obvious surprise of the convention, which had expected a speech upon the issues of the hour.

It was known moreover that a careful speech had been prepared, and it is now a dead loss to many newspapers which had it in type. The reason for Mr. Estee's change of program cannot be divined.

At the conclusion of Mr. Estee's little address, Mayor Roche, of Chicago, who was the first delegate to gain recognition, climbed upon the platform with a silver gavel in his hand and in an able speech, presented it in behalf of the city to the chair. It was, he said, not silver alone, but of gold, emblematic of the bi-metallic basis of sound National currency. The appreciation that greeted the gift was expressed by prolonged cheers, and they were renewed when Delegate Charles A. Work, of Rockford, Ill., took his place and presented a gavel made from a desk in a tannery in Galena and which "once belonged to that superb, magnificent, silent soldier, Gen. Grant." [Long continued applause.]

"Yesterday," said the speaker, "the Michigan delegation presented you with a gavel which to pound the Democracy to death. We now give you a gavel with which you can tan their hides." Continuous cheers and laughter greeted this sally, and the chairman, in a few well spoken words, thanked the delegations for their gifts.

This done, he laid aside the Michigan and silver gavels and proceeded to use that associated with memories of Grant, Congressman Bayne, of Pittsburg, submitted the report of the committee on rules.

The rules provide for the following order of business:

First—Report of the committee on credentials.

Second—Report of the committee on resolutions.

Third—Calling roll for members of the National committee.

Fourth—Placing in nomination candidates for president.

Fifth—Balloting.

Sixth—Nominations for vice president.

Seventh—Balloting.

After presenting the report Mr. Payne remarked that the most essential difference between the present rules and those adopted at previous convention was the proposed formation of an executive committee of nine to be elected by the National committee clothed with power to conduct the affairs of the party.

The adoption of the report was moved, when Senator Hoar asked for the reading of the rule relating to alternates. It was looked for but much to the amusement of the convention the chair announced that the rule were on the way to the printers. A messenger was sent for the document, but meanwhile Mr. Hoar had repeated the rule from memory and without any explanation moved that it be recommitted to the committee on amendments.

Mr. Butterworth moved to amend the report, so as to provide that fifteen minutes only be allowed for nominating speeches, allowing only ten minutes for seconding speeches. Mr. Bayne made an appeal to Mr. Butterworth to withdraw his motion, placing a limit on the length of speeches, but Mr. Butterworth evoked a ripple of laughter by the remark, that he made it out of sympathy for the audience.

Mr. Bayne continued, and spoke so long that "time" was called on him, and the audience indulged in a good laugh at his expense. He could not understand, he said, what Senator Hoar wanted, as the rule relating to alternates was practically the same as had prevailed in former years.

Senator Hoar then replied in explanation: "The rule provides for but one alternate for each delegate. If that alternate is absent, no other alternate can take the place of the absent delegate. I want it amended so that any one of the alternates from a district can serve in the place of an absent delegate from that district."

Mr. Butterworth's resolution to limit the speeches was lost on a viva voce vote, by a large majority, and then Senator Hoar and Congressman Bentle, of Maine, became involved in a brief controversy, in relation to the senator's position on the alternate question.

Mr. Root, of Arkansas, submitted another technical amendment to the rule, while the audience showed signs of impatience.

Chauncey I. Filer, of Missouri, joined in the discussions. Mr. Taft, of South Carolina, made another technical amendment.

At 2:15 the convention took a recess until 5 p. m.
